

Rutgers University
Offshore Wind Energy Symposium
Thursday, January 12, 2023
8:30am - 4:00pm
Richard Weeks Hall of Engineering, Busch Campus

Agenda

8:30	Registration and Breakfast	1 st Floor Lobby
9:00	Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Peggy Brennan-Tonetta, Senior Associate Director, NJAES• Michael Zwick, Senior Vice President for Research, Rutgers University• Senator Bob Smith, Chair of the New Jersey Senate Environment and Energy Committee	Room 105
9:30	Keynote Speaker Kris Ohleth, Director, Special Initiative on Offshore Wind	Room 105
10:15	World Café Overview Wade Trappe, Professor and Associate Dean for Academic Programs, School of Engineering	Room 105
10:20	Break	2 nd Floor Atrium
10:35	World Café	See name badge for assigned room
12:00	Lunch & Student Posters	2 nd Floor Concepts Lab
12:45	Overview of NJEDA Fellowship and University Initiatives Programs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction – Jen Becker, Managing Director, NJEDA Wind Institute• Wind Institute Fellowship Program – Chelsie Riche, Assistant Director for Research and Experiential Education, Office of Academic Affairs• Community Events and Shared Learning – Jeannie Garmon, Director of Research Development, Rutgers – Camden; Jim Morris, Associate Vice President of Continuing Studies, Rutgers Division of Continuing Studies; Kevin Lyons, Associate Professor Professional Practice, Rutgers Business School Newark/New Brunswick• Educational Initiatives for a Resilient Offshore Wind Economy in New Jersey – Josh Kohut, Professor, Dept of Marine and Coastal Sciences	Room 105
1:00	Lightning talks Josh Kohut, Professor, Department of Marine and Coastal Sciences	Room 105
2:15	Break	2 nd Floor Atrium
2:30	Lightning talks Onur Bilgen, Associate Professor, Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering	Room 105
4:00	Closing remarks Peggy Brennan-Tonetta, Senior Associate Director, NJAES	Room 105